INTERNATIONAL EXPRESS MAIL SERVICE

This information package is provided to you by your local Customer Service Representative in the Western Region.

It is formatted alphabetically by country for easy use and contains relevant information as pertains to each country's requirements.

Each country is listed on its own separate page. As other countries join our network you will be able to easily update this information package.

Express Mail Custom Designed Service for customers who ship on a regular basis is available to all countries listed on the following pages. Call your Postmaster, Customer Service Representative, or Express Mail Manager for Custom Designed rates.

International Express Mail rates include merchandise and document insurance at no additional cost. All countries accepting merchandise in International Express Mail shipments will insure to the maximum of $500 with the exception of Taiwan whose limitation is $250. For full details, ask for Postal Notice 7, Express Mail Insurance.

CUSTOMERS SHOULD BE ADVISED THAT FLIGHT AVAILABILITY FROM THE INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE OFFICE MAY AFFECT STATED DELIVERY STANDARDS

RETURN RECEIPT SERVICE

Effective September 1, 1983 return receipt service will be available for Express Mail International Services items destined for certain countries.

Form: USPS 2865, International Return Receipt

Price: NO additional charge

Availability: Custom Designed and On Demand Service

Procedure: Customers complete and affix PS 2865 to each article. Forms returned via First-Class Mail.

INQUIRIES, INDEMNITIES AND REFUNDS

Routine inquiries requesting confirmation of delivery of an International Express Mail item will not be accepted. Inquiries from U. S. senders having tangible proof of non-receipt of an International Express Mail item (TWX, letter from the foreign addressee, etc.) are accepted by the origin office express mail manager who will forward the inquiry to the International Mail Classification Division, U.S. Postal Service, Washington, DC 20260. All inquiries are transmitted by airmail.

PAYMENTS FOR INTERNATIONAL EXPRESS MAIL
When Authorized
International Express Mail is covered by document reconstruction and merchandise insurance in case of loss, damage, or rifling. Indemnity will be paid by the Postal Service as specified in DMM 294.

Indemnity for International Express Mail items may NOT be paid:

A. For delay in delivery

B. When the contents are prohibited.

C. For an item seized by customs or any other government agency.

D. When no inquiry or claim has been made by the mailer within 90 days from the date of mailing.

E. For damage which results from the quality of the contents, that is, its inability, due to its nature, to withstand the ordinary incidents of International Express Mail carriage.

F. When full compensation or reimbursement has otherwise been made by the United States Postal Service or by any outside firm or corporation whatsoever except on a pro rata basis as co-insurer. In case of co-insurance, Form 3823, Declaration of Insurance Company, must be submitted with the claim.

G. When delivery was made under conditions prescribed for Express Mail by the country of destination.

H. When the items were not mailed in the manner prescribed. However, in the event of loss, rifling, or damage of items erroneously accepted, indemnity may be paid.

I. When evidence of mailing has not been presented.

U. S. senders of International Express Mail must submit claims as follows:

A. Claims for loss may be submitted 7 days after the date of mailing.

B. Claims must be made within 90 days from the date of mailing unless an inquiry has been filed previously.

Ref. IMM 935/935.2

REFUNDS FOR INTERNATIONAL EXPRESS MAIL

Requests for refund of postage may be filed only by the mailer. Such requests must be made within 90 days after the date of mailing.

The Postal Service will refund postage for International Express Mail when total loss, total rifling, or total damage is involved.

Postage refunds will not be made for delayed International Express Mail items.
